

Don Cherry's Hockey Stories Part 4: The Coach's Corner Classic

Don Cherry is a Canadian icon. He's been a hockey coach, commentator, and author for over 50 years, and he's known for his outspoken personality and his love of the game. Cherry's latest book, Don Cherry's Hockey Stories Part 4, is a collection of his funniest and most memorable stories from his years in hockey.

The book is divided into three parts. The first part, "The Early Years," covers Cherry's childhood and his early days in hockey. The second part, "The Coaching Years," tells the story of Cherry's coaching career, from his days as a minor league coach to his time behind the bench of the Boston Bruins. The third part, "The Broadcasting Years," covers Cherry's career as a hockey commentator, from his early days on Hockey Night in Canada to his current role as the host of Coach's Corner.
