

Edge of Heaven: The Yorkshire Coast's Untamed Beauty

The Yorkshire Coast is a land of contrasts, where rugged cliffs meet sandy bays, and ancient ruins stand alongside modern towns and cities. It's a place of breathtaking beauty, with something to offer everyone, from walkers and cyclists to surfers and birdwatchers.

In his new book, Edge of Heaven, photographer David Noton captures the essence of this stunning coastline. Through his lens, we see the Yorkshire Coast in all its glory, from the dramatic cliffs of Flamborough Head to the tranquil sands of Filey Bay. Noton's photographs are a testament to the beauty of this coastline, and they will inspire you to explore it for yourself.
