Selected Tales and Sketches

By Edgar Allan Poe, Nathaniel Hawthorne, and Mary Shelley

Published by Penguin Classics

Descent into the Abyss of Human Darkness

Prepare yourself for an unforgettable literary journey as 'Selected Tales and Sketches' by Penguin Classics unveils the tormented minds and haunting experiences of three literary giants: Edgar Allan Poe, Nathaniel Hawthorne, and Mary Shelley.

Step into the eerie shadows of Poe's "The Fall of the House of Usher," where a narrator's visit to his friend's crumbling mansion unravels a chilling tale of madness, decay, and a supernatural force. In "Ligeia," Poe weaves an intricate web of obsession and the boundaries of physical existence. The haunting atmosphere and enigmatic characters will linger in your thoughts long after you close the book.

Nathaniel Hawthorne's "The Minister's Black Veil" explores the enigmatic nature of human sin and isolation. As the young Reverend Hooper chooses to wear a black veil over his face, he becomes an outcast in his own community, condemned to a solitary existence that forces him to confront his inner turmoil.

Mary Shelley's "Frankenstein" is a timeless masterpiece of Gothic horror. It tells the tale of Victor Frankenstein, a brilliant but arrogant scientist who creates a monstrous creature from human body parts. As the creature's intelligence and awareness grow, so does its desire for revenge, leading to a devastating confrontation that tests the limits of humanity and compassion.
