Excerpt

Jake's heart pounded in his chest as he read the final message from Anya. "You'll regret this, Jake. You'll pay for what you've done." The words sent a chill down his spine. Had he unknowingly stumbled upon something dangerous? Fear gnawed at him as he frantically tried to recall every interaction with the enigmatic woman.

The detective's piercing gaze met Jake's. "Mr. Caldwell, we need to talk about Anya's death. There are inconsistencies in your story, and we have reason to believe you were involved." Jake felt his world crumble around him. He had fallen prey to a deadly game, and the stakes were higher than he could have ever imagined.
